

October 29, 2013

We have successfully completed a Quality Clinic through United Technologies Aerospace Systems. This marks our second successful Quality Clinic. A Quality Clinic is a comprehensive review of our quality management system that includes a review of our quality documents, review of product flow through our manufacturing processes, manufacturing capabilities and ongoing inspection processes.

Our team works tirelessly on our quality system and we are very proud of this achievement.

